Under section 196.131(2) , Florida Statutes, any person who knowingly and willfully gives false information to claim homestead exemption is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable by imprisonment up to 1 year, a fine up to $5,000 or both.

Penalties:

The property appraiser has a duty to put a tax lien on your property if you received a homestead exemption during the past 10 years that you were not entitled to. The property appraiser will notify you that taxes with penalties and interest are due. You will have 30 days to pay before a lien is recorded. If this was not an error by the property appraiser, you will be subject to a penalty of 50% of the unpaid taxes and 15% interest each year (see section 196.011(9)(a), F.S.). For special requirements for estates probated or administered outside Florida (see section 196.161(1), F.S.).
