Dear Property Owner:

Florida Statute 196.202 reads in part...
“ property to the value of $5,000 of every widow or widower who is a bona fide resident of this state shall be exempt from taxation.”

If you are a Widow or Widower and have not remarried, you may be eligible for a $5,000 exemption. In order to receive the exemption for the upcoming Tax Year, a recorded Death Certificate is required indicating your spouse passed away prior to January 1 of the year filing.

If you are currently receiving a Homestead exemption, please complete the required information on the bottom of this form including your signature and the date. Attach and mail a clear “COPY” of your spouse’s recorded Death Certificate to one of our offices listed above prior to March 1 of the year filing. Information submitted after March 1 will be considered for the following Tax Year.

Thank you,

Manuel J. Padrón MSM, CFE
Chief Deputy of Administration and Technology
